

GENERAL OF THE ARMIES
WASHINGTON

December 12, 1922.

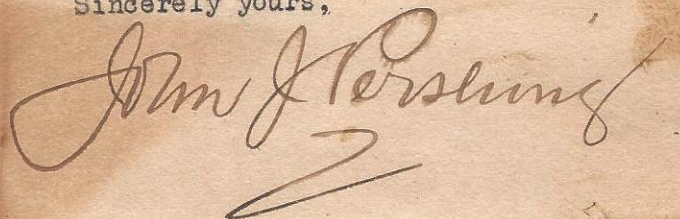

Mr. Meyer Bloomfield,
6 Beacon Street,
Boston, Mass.

Dear Mr. Bloomfield:

I was delighted to receive your letter of the eighth instant and hope that if you are in town I may have an opportunity to see you while in Boston. You must have some very interesting information to divulge. At any rate, drop in and see me whenever you are in Washington.

With very best wishes always, believe me

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "John J. Pershing", with a large, sweeping flourish underneath.