

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 16, 1922.

My dear Bloomfield:

I have your letter of February 10th. You may come to Washington at any time between the receipt of this letter and the 4th of March and be confident of seeing me and having my cooperation in your preparation for the trip abroad. My own thought has been to present you to the State Department to secure such requisite papers as you may wish, to which the Department thinks it may becomingly give approval. I cannot well specify the hour, but it is safe to say that I can see you at any time you may elect to come.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Meyer Bloomfield,
6 Beacon Street,
Boston 9, Mass.
