

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 17, 1922.

My dear Mr. Bloomfield:

I am in receipt of your note of June 12th. I will be glad to see you in Washington any time during the week of June 19th to 24th, or during the week following as late as the 30th. I give you this ample latitude so that you may make your trip here entirely convenient. I prefer that you plan to see me on a Tuesday, Thursday or Saturday. Please let Mr. Christian know when you are coming.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Meyer Bloomfield,
6 Beacon St.,
Boston, Mass.
