

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

March 20, 1957

Dear Mr. Bloomfield:

I am sorry to hear of your resignation from the Department after eleven years of able service. I know of the high esteem with which your work has been regarded by your colleagues; and I am sure that you take a deserved pride in the contribution which you have made to the fight for peace.

I wish you well in your new position on the staff of the Center for International Studies.

Sincerely yours,

John Foster Dulles

Mr. Lincoln P. Bloomfield,
Special Assistant to the Assistant
Secretary for International
Organizational Affairs,
Department of State.
