

The Outlook

287 Fourth Avenue
New York

Office of
Theodore Roosevelt

August 3rd, 1911.

My dear Mr. Bloomfield:

I wish I could do as you request, but you have no idea of the multitude of requests I receive to write such statements. I cannot do it. The few cases ^{in which} I have done it in the past have resulted in my being literally overwhelmed with similar requests. I need not point out to you that if I could write statements ^{at} to all the movements which I believe in - and of course I should endorse no other - I should endorse so many that it would be useless to endorse any. With regret,

Sincerely yours,

Theodore Roosevelt
