

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 15, 1973

Dear Linc:

It was very good of you to write on May 18 with regard to possible agenda items for the President's talks with General-Secretary Brezhnev.

Your suggestions are greatly appreciated and they will be taken into consideration during preparations for the talks.

Warm regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a vertical stroke on the left, a horizontal line extending to the right, and a short diagonal stroke at the end.

Henry A. Kissinger

Professor Lincoln P. Bloomfield
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
30 Wadsworth Street
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139