JAN 14 REC'D

Dear Linc:

I appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending me one of your copies of General von Horn's report of his command of the UN forces in the Congo. We will, of course, keep it in confidence.

From my short perusal of its contents, I can see that there are a lot of lessons to be learned from it about the political and psychological, as well as organization problems of an international police force. My office has done some work on this problem from time to time and I am sure we can use this report to good advantage for this purpose as well as for getting a better appreciation of the current Congo difficulties.

My best regards,

Yours sincerely,

Paul
