Mr. Meyer Bloomfield,

112 Salem St.,

Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Bloomfield:

On my return to New York I find your letter of the 6th. We are going to keep under consideration the work of the Vocation Bureau, also Mr. ^{Davis'} ~~Davidson's~~ work, with the idea of having an article about them later. I am returning the clippings, herewith.

I greatly enjoyed my visit with you and your family at Gloucester. It was the first real taste of outing that I have had this year, and I appreciated it.

With very best wishes, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Ray Stannard Baker
